Oxygen

Closure

I can't sit back and watch
You jump in the deep end
With him as your oxygen
Cause it's a long way to fall
When you sink to the bottom
Hoping he'll change againYou're drowning in tears
And how can you breathe
Underwater
Believe those lies much longer

Believe those lies much longer
He cheats you, deceives you
With heavy hands he holds you
So cold, with a heart of fool's gold
Caught in the undertow
You'll always be the one

To say there's no black and white I must be color blind Cause it's a long way to fall

When you sink to the bottom

Leaving it all behindYou're drowning in tears

And how can you breathe

Underwater

Believe those lies much longer
He cheats you, deceives you
With heavy hands he holds you
So cold, with a heart of fool's gold
Caught in the undertowAnd I know it's hard

To see through it now Cause he says he'll change As he's pulling you down Underwater

Believe those lies much longer
He cheats you, deceives you
With heavy hands he holds you
So cold, with a heart of fool's gold
Caught in the undertow
He cheats you, deceives you
Caught in the undertow
He cheats you, deceives you

Caught in the undertow
He cheats you, deceives youI can't sit back and watch
You jump in the deep end

With him as your oxygen
