Casa Nova

Mia Doi Todd

I can fall in love again. I can feel the curse you cast is over. No more no more Casanova. Hip hip hurray, oh hallelujah.I haven't changed much in these ten years. I hit my head up against the wall Of my same ol' fears, my same ol' fears, My same ol' tears. I'm breaking mirrors.I know myself again. I remember what is good about me If I let it out of hiding, My enemy, proven to keep me down Love as a memory of kindness And cruelty and cruelty And honesty and true beauty. I can fall in love again. I can feel the curse I cast is over. No more no more Casanova. Hip hip hurray, oh Supernova, Supernova, Supernova, Four-Leaf Clover.
