Safe (Dalyx Radio Mix)

Dani'el

Word by word They fell into this page Each letter carries a moment Needs to be there, to stay The ink never fades Still watching at me Lurking at the corner, Wonders if the memory is still thereI sent you this page There were so many Knows that you will sing And memorize each saying Now I know If my words in your hands I Am safe You once said to me You can always be safe But destiny had his call In his own way you made Now there is only whisper Goes for miles Travels on one paper With a post stamp to remind Word by word They fell Watching Lurking Hope Still there
