

Haha No One Can Hear You!

Gallant

Get drunk and get some money Do you wanna see what life's like on
The outside of your inner circle, baby?
(Get drunk and get some money)
Misery loves company but you're
Stuck in seclusion, aren't you, baby?
(So get drunk and get some money) 'Cause even when the world calls out your name
You answer from a padded room, oh baby
Golden medal pressed against your face
You usually spend the afternoon asleep on rose petals
But now you got
Thorns in your back
'Cause you tried to grab one
For yourself 'cause you can't help it
Know what it takes to live like the fast ones
So you try, 'cause you can't help it
All of your friends say, "Don't be the sad one"
Lighten up, but you can't help it
Know what it takes to live like the fast ones
So you try, 'cause you can't help it Tell me you don't wonder what your Feet look like on private beaches, baby?
(Get drunk and get some money)
And tell me you don't wish for something
More interesting than your own reflections?
(So get drunk and get some money)
'Cause even when the world calls out your name
You answer from a padded room, oh baby
Golden medal pressed against your face
You usually spend the afternoon asleep on rose petals
But now you got Thorns in your back
'Cause you tried to grab one
For yourself 'cause you can't help it
Know what it takes to live like the fast ones
So you try, 'cause you can't help it
All of your friends say, "Don't be the sad one"
Lighten up, but you can't help it
Know what it takes to live like the fast ones
So you try, 'cause you can't help it (Get drunk and, get drunk and)
That contradicts the other thing
(Get drunk and get some money)
(Get drunk and, get drunk and)
And then you come back and then you're like, and I was like
(Get drunk and get some money)

It's your fault
Why you complaining about that shit that's your own fault?
(Get drunk and, get drunk and)
And then you're coming in
Your sandals all wack
(Get drunk and get some money)
You're gonna have to
Tag us in the first place
(Get drunk and get some money)
Why don't you stay at home?Thorns in your back
'Cause you tried to grab one
For yourself 'cause you can't help it
Know what it takes to live like the fast ones
So you try, 'cause you can't help it
All of your friends say, "Don't be the sad one"
Lighten up, but you can't help it
Know what it takes to live like the fast ones
So you try, 'cause you can't help itThorns in your back
'Cause you tried to grab one
For yourself 'cause you can't help it
Know what it takes to live like the fast ones
So you try, 'cause you can't help it
All of your friends say, "Don't be the sad one"
Lighten up, but you can't help it
Know what it takes to live like the fast ones
So you try, 'cause you can't help itGet drunk and get some money
