

Crossfire

Pillar

I'd rather take a shot in the chest
Than take a shot in the back
At least I'll see it coming
And I'll know where I'm standing at
To get shot down by your own
Is such a crying shame
So watch your back
No matter what side you take
You've got me caught up in a crossfire
I'm caught in a crossfire
It feels like a suicide
The heat's closing in on me
When it's down to the wire
Your life on the line
Will You save me from this
Chaos surrounding me?
You call yourself a soldier
But you've never put your toe to the line
'Cause when the banner flies
You're too afraid to ride
You hang me out to dry
You never rendezvous
Eyes in the back of my head
They will be watching you
You've got me caught up in a crossfire
I'm caught in a crossfire
It feels like a suicide
The heat's closing in on me
When it's down to the wire
Your life on the line
Will You save me from this
Chaos surrounding me?
I would take death before I deny You
I would cheat death just to stand by You
I would fear death if I couldn't see You
I would take death before I deny You
Death before deny
I'm caught in a crossfire
It feels like a suicide
The heat's closing in on me
When it's down to the wire
Your life on the line
Will You save me from this
Chaos surrounding me?
Surrounding me
This chaos surrounding me
Surrounding me
