

2 Vaults (feat. Lil Yachty)

Tee Grizzley

[Intro: Tee Grizzley & Young Thug]

We got London on da Track

Ayy, ayy, ayy, ayy, ayy

I need two vaults

With the two cars

What that coupe cost?

Get that tool off

What your jewels cost?

What that coupe cost?

I need two vaults

I'm the new Hulk

[Chorus: Tee Grizzley]

Too much money, I need like two vaults (I need two)

Stacks big and green, I call my pockets the new Hulk

We don't pay attention to no loose talk

Shoot that choppa hundred times, I had to let it cool off

Diamonds dancin' on me, doin' the moonwalk (drip)

Can't wear my AP, I had to let it cool off (drip)

Almost died from pneumonia, had to take my jewels off

We don't argue with these niggas, we just let them tools talk [Verse 1: Tee Grizzley]

Hit your bitch and give her back, now she yours again (she yours)

Back to back in them Ferraris, we stay horseplayin' (skrrt)

Run up on us and the morgue gon' have corpses in

Harvard student doin' my taxes, I got dork friends

I put rings on them hundreds, bitch, I married them (bitch, I married them)

You see my niggas, money and ice everywhere on them (that shit everywhere)

And we fuck each other's hoes 'cause we don't cherish them (that's a fact)

But we gon' leak out that info, we can't embarrass them (we got y'all covered)

Can't leave the country, but I got my beat from London (got my beat from London)

These niggas talk but see me out and ain't on nothin' (ain't on shit)

I'm in the stu, I need a Perc', go get the runner

You got shooters, I got hunters, you got twenties, I got hundreds, nigga

[Chorus: Tee Grizzley]

Too much money, I need like two vaults (I need two)

Stacks big and green, I call my pockets the new Hulk

We don't pay attention to no loose talk

Shoot that choppa hundred times, I had to let it cool off

Diamonds dancin' on me, doin' the moonwalk (drip)

Can't wear my AP, I had to let it cool off (drip)

Almost died from pneumonia, had to take my jewels off
