

Kirby, Joe

Nahko

We were trippin' out to this riff in our heads
Something that goes like this
But comes out way different
Kind of like your first kiss Those times, just in time
I fell out of some trees
Though I lay and saw the world so clearly
And in all the right colors In the sky
In the sky
In the sky
In the sky to the ground
From the waters to your mouth
I can see from this riverbed of ours
One you can [?] trees
please
Out into the streets we ran so childishly
'Cause why does it matter?
Two young lovers with whom to grow
Let's see who can do three cartwheels in a row
'Cause why does it matter? Don't ask why
Don't ask why
Don't ask why
Don't ask why
I won't lie
They were two kids gettin' high
Off of life and their love for each other
Our faces glow from our epiphanies
As we ate like kings from the manna trees
And felt relieved to be going swimming
The Milky Way's got a way with me
Am I really here or am I just dreaming
On my way out to sea? We will sail
We will sail
We will sail
We will sail off the earth
And find out just how it works
To believe in something [?]
And what is matter If you see what I see
From where I'm standing
What you've shown me
Can only get better If you see what I see
From where I'm standing
What you've shown me

Can only get better
