

Let Go (feat. Kristinia DeBarge)

Redrama

Yeah Let go-oo-ooo
Sitting in my cubicle in down slow
What I got to do I do what I'm told
I'm smiling at the customer with my balls
It really could suck my world you don't pause But I got rent to pay, I got bills Thinking that we can waste first day???? On monday, I take it one day, I'mma catch a plane and take it one way
And then I just breath in
And then breath out???

Oh when, when I think about it
Ain't nothing to think about
Let go, let go, let go, let go
My, my feet left the ground and no way I'm coming down
Let go, let go, let go, let go
I had to let go, let go
Let go, let go o-ou
Let go, let go
Let go, let go ou-ou Why do I even bother with this dum job
What if???

Trying to keep my carma???
You are my everything you???

All the memories keep playing in my head
Will I ever see that woman again
'Cause I remember every moment so real
So if I gotta swim the ocean I will
That was Wednesday, stressed in the rain
Thinking the whole world must be against me
And then I just breath in
And then breath out

What if thursday come with the earthquack???? Oh when, when I think about it
Ain't nothing to think about
Let go, let go, let go, let go
My, my feet left the ground and no way I'm coming down
Let go, let go, let go, let go
I had to let go, let go
Let go, let go o-ou
Let go, let go
Let go, let go ou-ou (Listen, listen)
What if I got a plan and what if it don't work
What if I???

What if I sit back what if I just wait
What if I relapse, what if I just taste

What if I get cancer running my family
What if I didn't get answer god must be mad at me
What did I do wrong what did keep them waiting
What if I had a new song what if they all hated
What about my nephew who growing without a father
He called in the middle and I acted modern???

What if I don't care what they think and I really mean it??? Oh when, when I think about it
Ain't nothing to think about
Let go, let go, let go, let go
My, my feet left the ground and no way I'm coming down
Let go, let go, let go, let go
I had to let go, let go
Let go, let go o-ou
Let go, let go
Let go, let go ou-ou
