

Good Years

ZAYN

I'd rather be anywhere
Anywhere but here
(Anywhere but here)
I'd rather be anywhere
Anywhere but here
(Anywhere but here)
I close my eyes and see a crowd of a thousand tears
(A thousand tears)
I pray to God I didn't waste all my good years
(All my good years)
All my good years
(All my good years)
All my good years
(All my good years)
The voices screaming loud as hell
(Loud as hell, loud as hell)
We don't care 'bout no one else
(About no one else, no one else)
Nothing in the world could bring us down
(Bring us down, bring us down)
Now we're so high among the stars without a worry
(Without a worry)
And neither one, one of us wants to say we're sorry
(Say we're sorry) I'd rather be anywhere
Anywhere but here
I'd rather be anywhere
Anywhere but here
I close my eyes and see a crowd of a thousand tears
I pray to God I didn't waste all my good years
All my good years
All my good years
Too much drugs and alcohol
(Alcohol)
What the hell were we fighting for?
(Fighting for)
'Cause now the whole damn world will know
(World will know)
That we're too numb and just too dumb to change the story
(Change the story)
Neither one, one of us wants to say we're sorry
(Say we're sorry) I'd rather be anywhere
Anywhere but here

I'd rather be anywhere
Anywhere but here
I close my eyes and see a crowd of a thousand tears
I pray to God I didn't waste all my good years
All my good years
All my good years Need a chance just to breathe, feel alive
And when the day meets the night, show me the light
(Show me the light)
Feel the wind and the fire hold the pain deep inside
It's in my eyes
(My eyes)
In my eyes
(My eyes) I'd rather be anywhere
Anywhere but here
I'd rather be anywhere
Anywhere but here
I close my eyes and see a crowd of a thousand tears
I pray to God I didn't waste all my good years
All my good years
All my good years I pray to God I didn't waste all my good years
(All my good years)
All my good years
(All my good years)
All my good years
(All my good years)
