Shuffle Your Feet
Time won't save our souls
Time won't save our souls
Time won't save my soul... no
When everything is going down nothing seem to feel same no one seem to know my name no one seem to go my way
but who knows if i'll see you again
but who knows if i'll see you again
One more for the soul-maded dreamers
One more for the wicked man
One more for the peaceful protest
That keeps the war in demand
Who knows if I'll see you again
Who knows if I'll see you again
Time won't save our souls
Time won't save my soul
Time won't save our souls
Time won't save my soul
I never thought I'd see it coming
I never thought I'd ever know Nothing seems to take me over
Nothing seems to let me go
Who knows if I'll see you again
Who knows if I'll see you again
