

I Wanna Be

B.B. King & Eric Clapton

I wander helplessly day by day
It's so much easier to run away
My mind is spent, my body sold
Never knowing which way to go I'm always there for you, baby
Won't you let me see
If we can get closer every day I wanna be felt by you
I wanna be touched by you
I wanna be loved by you
I wanna be anything you want me to
Don't mean nothing when you're growing old
Nobody knows what the future holds
I am left with a bitter taste
Torn away from that beautiful chase But I'm always there for you baby
Won't you let me see
If we can get closer every day I wanna be felt by you
I wanna be touched by you
I wanna be loved by you
I wanna be anything you want me to I wanna be felt by you
I wanna be touched by you
I wanna be loved by you
I wanna be anything you want me to
I wanna be felt by you
I wanna be touched by you
I wanna be loved by you
I wanna be anything you want me to I wanna be
