

Believe Me

Badfinger

Believe me, if I wanted
Spend the rest of my time with a mean, lean, woman like you
Would I?
If I needed, but I don't Will I?
If you want me
Give you all the love in the world that a man could Still I, if I needed, I could Then I could cry your name and you would come There'd be no need for me anymore, anymore! Believe me, if I wanted
Spend the rest of my time with a mean, lean, woman like you
Would I, if I needed, but I don't (duel guitar solo (Pete Ham & Joey Molland)) Then I could cry your name and you would come
There'd be no need for me anymore, anymore!
Will I, if you want me
Give you all the love in the world that a man could Still I-hi-hi, if I needed, I could.
