

No More Regrets

Zuccherò, Lester Snell & New Orleans Gospel Choir

I've laid awake, awake all through the night
Staring at the ceiling
A new day breaks into this room with light
A light that's so revealing I can't live in shadows
I can't hide in darkened rooms
I can't run forever
That's not the way to heal these wounds I said, No more regrets, no sad songs
Every day will have a truer meaning
No more regrets, no false dawns?
Everything I do I must believe in I don't know how, how I lost my way
A ship to nowhere sailing
I fell apart, an actor in a play
Whose memory was failing
I can't live on the ocean
Or in the corner of a half-lit stage
I can't turn back the hours
But I can start to find my way I said, No more regrets, no sad songs
Every day will have a truer meaning
No more regrets, no false dawns?
Everything I do I must believe in The days I've lost, the vanished time
Where nothing mattered
I broke the spell, I turned the tide
The curse was shattered Papà perchè, perchè papà
Papà perchè, papà perchè
Perchè papà, papà perchè The lonely hours, the bitter wine
A broken dreamer, I've been released
I've done my time, la bella vita
I said, No more regrets, no sad songs
Every day will have a truer meaning
No more regrets, no false dawns
Everything I do I must believe in No more regrets, no sad songs
Every day will have a truer meaning
No more regrets, no false dawns
Everything I do I must believe in Papà perchè, perchè papà
Papà perchè, papà perchè
Perchè papà, papà perchè
