Jerry Was a Race Car Driver

Primus

Jerry was a race car driver He drove so goddamned fast He never did win no checkered flag But he never did come in last Jerry was a race car driver He'd say "El Sob number one" With a bocephus sticker on his 442 He'd light 'em up just for funAhhhh Ahhhh Captain Pierce was a fireman Richmond engine number three I'll be a wealthy man when I get a dime For all the things that man taught to me Captain Pierce was a strong man Strong as any man alive It stuck in his craw That they made him retire at the age of sixty fiveAhhhh AhhhhGo!"Hee hee hee! 'Dog will hunt!" Ahhhh Ahhhh Jerry was a race car driver Twenty two years old Had one too many cold beers one night And wrapped himself around a telephone pole Go! Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by http://counterlikes.com/