

Wasted Love

City and Colour

Careless love...
Quit pouring honey in my ears.
You're speaking diamonds, crystal clear.
So far away, I want you near. Crying out for more, Just a little more.
Tied down on the floor, like a prisoner of war.
Oh, I've been down so long,
The day is nearly gone.
I must carry on, with this wasted love!
Careless love...
There's more to say than should be said.
Can't get these words straight in my head.
You make me feel so powerless. I'm crying out for more, Just a little more.
Tied down on the floor, like a prisoner of war.
Oh, I've been down so long,
The day is nearly gone.
I must carry on, with this wasted love! Wasted love
Wasted love
Crying out for more, Just a little more.
Tied down on the floor, like a prisoner of war.
Oh, I've been down so long,
The day is nearly gone.
I must carry on, with this wasted love! Wasted love
Wasted love.
