

Kingdom of One

Maren Morris

First light, sacrifice
Bird's eye, saw the signs
Cold nights will take your life
Reach out and touch your faith
Give up on everything
To carry the world on a string All you can give
All you can beg
All that you longed for
Nothing compares
When nothing is sacred
No one is safe
So you wanna play God? Come on
Is that all you got? Come on
Would you sell your soul? Burn it all
Everything that you love
Finally become second to none
In a kingdom of one Dig down, far below
Lost souls, feed the crows
Hell's fire keeps you warm All you can give
All you can beg
Look to your heart
But nothing is there
When nothing is sacred
No one is safe
So you wanna play God? Come on
Is that all you got? Come on
Would you sell your soul? Burn it all
Everything that you love
Finally become second to none
In a kingdom of one
In a kingdom of one Come on
Come on
Come on
Come on So you wanna play God? Come on
Is that all you got? Come on
Would you sell your soul? Burn it all
Everything that you love
Ash to ash, dust to dust
Everything in God above
Shed a tear, shed your blood
No you cannot give enough
Finally become second to none

In a kingdom of one
