

Five Tattoos

Ella Henderson

Tight jeans with a rip on the knee
So close but it ain't where I wanna be
And I 'm lovin' every minute of your company
But have I read this all wrong? Maybe I move too fast
Or maybe I miss a sign
But baby this could last
You are the one thing on my mind You are my one and only
My blue skies and grey
You are the only one for me
Brown eyes with your old woolly hat
Five tattoos from your shoulders to your hands
You could give me what I've never had
Boy keep leading me on But maybe I move too fast
Or maybe I miss a sign
But baby this could last
You are the one thing on my mind
You are my one and only
My blue skies and grey
You are the only one for me Tight jeans with a rip on the knee
