

The Villain

Austra

you say I'm not afraid but I linger.
the pleasures still the same.
she gets sicker. I'll break your heart, if I can't stay it's more than I might be safe to play. It's hidden in the clouds where I can see how easily my mind could just break free. Arise sweet demon and have your say. I deserve nothing, but fortunes way arise sweet demon and have your say I'll break your heart, but I can't stay Tenderly my garden grows there.
Carefully, I'll care and wait there.
I can't be sure this round will solve it.
