The Villain

Austra

you say I'm not afraid but I linger.
the pleasures still the same.
she gets sicker.I'll break your heart, if I can't stay it's more than I might be safe to play.It's hidden in the clouds where I can see how easily my mind could just break freeArise sweet demon and have your sayI deserve nothing, but fortunes way arise sweet demon and have your say I'll break your heart, but I can't stay Tenderly my garden grows there.
Carefully, I'll care and wait there.
I can't be sure this round will solve it.
