

Burning Spirit

Brett Dennen

I'm walking with a burning spirit
But I don't know where it leads
If I ever I lose direction
I know that's where I have to be I'm sitting in the meadow asking
How to bend when the strong wind blows
I'm trying to remember
What my soul already knows
What my soul already knows I am looking to find
No place at all
My wandering mind
Knows who to call
I'm walking with a burning spirit
But I don't know where it leads
If I ever I lose direction
I know that's where I have to be When I get to the place I'm going
Surely I will disappear
Into forests with no shadows
The curiosity keeps me here
The curiosity keeps me here I am looking to find
No place at all
My wandering mind
Knows who to call I'm walking with a burning spirit
But I don't know where it leads
If I ever I lose direction
I know that's where I have to be
I know that's where I have to be
