

Simple Song

John Paul White

You're gonna die, you're gonna die
Younger eyes are gonna cry
By morning within your arms
Ain't gonna lose sleep
When you're safe from harm
I'll love you hard
I'll love you long
Sung every to this simple song
But I will remember, I will remember
I will remember, oooo
I will cry for you no more
I am no martyr, I'm no saint
By your side I'll have no complaint
I said I would, a long time ago
When he comes calling
I will let you go, let you go
I loved you hard
I loved you long
Sung every to this simple song
But I will remember, I will remember
I will remember, oooo
I will cry for you no more
no more
