Tryin' to Get Over You

Vince Gill

You could have given me a million reasons why
But it wouldn't change a thing
You said it all when you said goodbye
You took off your wedding ringI've been tryin' to get over you
I've been spending time alone
I've been tryin' to get over you
It'll take dying to get it doneAll my friends keep trying to fix me up
They say I need somebody new
When it comes to love I've all but given up
Cause life don't mean nothing, without you
I've been tryin' to get over you
I've been spending time alone
I've been tryin' to get over you
It'll take dying to get it done
