Intoxication

Gentleman

Yes, empress devine
Anytime me look ina your face
You make my world a brighter place
And your majesty and grace

A help me through the rat raceJoy ina your eyes, me nuh see no tears

Love is what you giving me throughout the years

Every time you need me, I will be there, my dear, I swearThere is no faking no heartbreaking

Like a volcano, this ya true love is shaking

In tender caring we are partaking

Woman, me feel, seh big things ina the makingIntoxication of a certain kind

I will admit that you suit my mind

Palpitation of another kind

Don't fast forward, baby, just rewind

Joy ina your eyes, me nuh see no tears

Love is what you giving me throughout the years

Every time you need me, I will be there, my dear, I swearNo mistaking in every thing you do

And I will always be a part of you

Jah, Jah made us and he will see us through

Always and forever, baby girl, this love is trueI've been searching for the longest time

Almost givin' up never thought I would find

Seen many roses die on the vine

But a hidden treasure in you, I man findJoy ina your eyes, me nuh see no tears

Love is what you giving me throughout the years

Every time you need me, I will be there, my dear, I swearOn the magic carpet we a ride

Venus Jupiter to the other side

Fi we togetherness, nuh need no guide

There is nothing to be shame nothing, fi go hide

A whole new world awaits

Brighter than the pearly gates

Where love is as strong as fate

And life is about to give and to takeJoy ina your eyes, me nuh see no tears

Love is what you giving me throughout the years

Every time you need me, I will be there, my dear, I swear
