Crying in the rainStop that crying, stop that lying, it's boring me I don't wanna spend my time with you Stop to think that once you brought me to ecstasy Give me the loving that I really needStop that crying in the rain now No more crying in the rain Who said that crying in the rain Could ever wash away a lover's pain?Oh, oh, crying in the rain now No more crying in the rain now Who said that crying in the rain Could ever wash away a lover's pain? Stop, you breathe you lie Loops got you lost I can't hear you Treason took a try Desperate drown in dirty thingsJuvenile jazz you hide Can't lose no love from day I shared Faint twinkle in your eyes Weary from how you earn your things You slip from sliding slowly Slither, sneaky, simple for a snake Poser in pursuit of passion Can't rush my quiver fake a quakeBetrayer, disarray Leave a soft one frying in the pain Deceitful, full of that couldn't care less If you're crying in the rain Stop that crying, stop that lying, it's boring me I don't wanna spend my time with you Stop to think that once you brought me to ecstasy Give me the loving that I really needStop that crying in the rain now No more crying in the rain Who said that crying in the rain Could ever wash away a lover's pain?Oh, oh, crying in the rain now No more crying in the rain Who said that crying in the rain Could ever wash away a lover's pain?Crying in the rainFake, no truth, no real Trapped in your toss Can't shake aching, fictions all you feel Make up to hide, make up of selfWicked with step ahead of skills Menial madness molds your making Plot to place for prize Weak known wonders for wealthYou dig the dirt well deep in darkness Dare to deal on the down low Tripping for treasures, plastic pleasures Headline in some kid side showA taste of a thrill got to have glitter

Serpents seem to savor show Fool can't afford to feign alone You're crying in the rainNo more crying in the rain No more driving me insane No more cryingStop that crying, stop that lying, it's boring me I don't wanna spend my time with you Stop to think that once you brought me to ecstasy Give me the loving that I really needStop that crying in the rain now No more crying in the rain Who said that crying in the rain Could ever wash away a lover's pain?Oh, oh crying in the rain now No more crying in the rain now Who said that crying in the rain Could ever wash away a lover's pain? Give me the loving that I really need Give me the loving that I really need, really need Oh, babyOh, oh crying in the rain now No more crying in the rain now Who said that crying in the rain Could ever wash away a lover's pain?
