

Some Girls

Jameson Rodgers

Pictures on her phone, tears in her eyes
Waterproof makeup ain't made for a breakup
On a Saturday night
Then it's hey how ya been Good how bout you
Funny how seeing you once after a few months gets you like that, right back to Tell your folks you know I know all about some new guy taking you out
Then you unfollow me then follow me back
Just so I know you're still around

(Chorus)

Some girls get their momma on the phone
Take a trip back home
Pretend they never knew the guy
Some girls, drink a bottle of wine
Got an old ex to text to get them through the gettin by
Sometimes it's a clean break straight gone
Clean slate moving on to something new
Sometimes some girls make it easy on you
Some girls never do Some hearts stay broke
Some hearts done skip a beat
Some people say goodbye
Then try to make it all right
Just like you're doing to me
(But tonight I'm living free)

(Chorus)

Some girls get their momma on the phone
Take a trip back home
Pretend they never knew the guy
Some girls, drink a bottle of wine
Got an old ex to text to get them through the gettin by
Sometimes it's a clean break straight gone
Clean slate moving on to something new
Sometimes some girls make it easy on you
Some girls never do Some girls know when they've got something
Worth holding on to
Some girls never do (Chorus)
Some girls get their momma on the phone
Take a trip back home
Pretend they never knew the guy
Some girls, drink a bottle of wine

Got an old ex to text to get them through the gettin by
Sometimes it's a clean break straight gone
Clean slate moving on to something new
Sometimes some girls make it easy on you
Some girls never doSome girls never do
Sometimes some girls make it easy on you
Some girls never do
