Lucille By Anthony Hamilton

Lucille

By Anthony Hamilton Verse I

My old lady's on the other side of town with her ex boyfriend

Drinking again, drinking again.

So you choose to lose someone who loves you / and a real good friend

For a bottle of gin, a bottle of sin Chorus

You picked a fine time to leave me Lucille

Now I'm sitting at the top of the hill.

Now my heart is broken and I'm all alone and don't know what to feel

Since you been gone, gone away.

Verse II

I over heard somebody say they saw you crying in a bar last night

With a blackend eye, blackend eye.

I know mistakes I made but its time... For another that will

Treat you right, treat you right Chorus

You picked a fine time to leave me Lucille

Now I'm sitting at the top of the hill.

Now my heart is broken and I'm all alone and don't know what to feel since you been gone, gone away. (Repeat) Bridge

Used to love me now you want to leave me / right when I told you I love you

Don't think you ever believe me when I said.

Use to love me now you want to run away / right when I told you I love you

Don't think you ever believe me when I said

Ohh. I love you... Ohh I love you... I love you

You were my baby

You were my love sugar darling

I know he didn't love you the way I did

Baby oh I love you

Don't you know I cared

Don't you know I love you

And I always want to be there

Ohh. you know I love you

You know I love you baby

And you know he really didn't care about you

I never would have hit you baby no no

Said I never would have hit you baby Ad lib out
