Wale

May the optimism of tomorrow be your foundation for today
The spotlight on my fans
Sunshine, I can't tell a lie

No need to say it but they just wanna hear it now

No need to say it but they just wanna hear it now

(I can't lie I feel quite phenomenal today baby)

(That new black soul) I was in the business when you was chasin' the bitches

Now I got the dollars I'm tryin get my position

Couple bad decisions I got some character issues

Although I'm never slippin like student parent permission

Yes I am aware that America tryna get me

So I let my friends carry paraphernalia

Before I love a industry girl I'll marry civilian

Picture a young, rich former taking me serious

Although I hit my stride, ain't even in prime (nah)

Singles in the chart make a broad lose top these days

You ain't gotta do nothin to pop these days

Instagram is runnin they thoughts these days

62 joint, got me Doug-in on em

Humbled that my (shit) dropped now I'm stuntin on em

You better know that you overdo for some better endings

Thats who whoever develop second guessing they blessing

My only fear is marriage she scared of bein alone

She settle for this bread so therein should be a trophy

I'mma prolly marry somebody already familiar

VH1 10 and I'm not thinkin about these bitches

Can do without opinions

Another brother caught up in the business

Had that lock since I lost my scholarship

I been gettin it to my old coach and ballin

Rose gold was forty Know these (niggas) recordin

Make (niggas) grab the forty

See me I thought money would change it it got worse

But its alot better than screamin "who got work?" (who got work?)

I'm openin it from back to packin out 9: 30

I never sold crack when crack rappin was workin

With that fact its back packin and murkin

Gettin that Bobby Heenan while you Mr. Perfect
