

Edge of a Dream (feat. Apocalyptica)

Firewind

Didnt mean to cause you trouble.
Didnt mean to cause you pain.
I never though this could turn out this way,
Maybe i am a big mistake.Didnt mean to say these words.
Didnt mean to hurt your pride.
We are looking far some inspiration,
I never found it in your heart.Walking on the edge of a dream.
Cant you see that i am real?
Pretend that it's for ever!
Walking to the edge of the world,
We belong in our dream,
For a while you feel the silence.
Only looking for forgiveness
And when the ship is sinking fast
I only looking for a sign that tells me
Where i can walk through this endless field.
Walking on the edge of a dream.
Cant you see that i am real?
Pretend that it's for ever.
Walking to the edge of the world,
We belong in our dream,
For a while you feel the silence.
Waiting for the weight of the world
In a place so cold!
If tomorow never comes
Hold my hand one last time, one last call
If tomorow never comes!Tommorow never comes...
