Take Off (feat. Trey Songz)

Chipmunk

Never thought I'd see the day when you wasn't by my side Listen I was down for you girl, put you first in my world And I thought you were down too rightIt's like you didn't want me to take off, take off, take off It's like you didn't want me to take off, take off But now I'm leavingI keep my life in a limelight, pap lights, award shows, red floors Booji bars, yes, it's what I'm meant for And we ain't quite the same as we used to be My life's in the public eye, I know you don't want yours to beTruthfully, 2 years in it's still new to me I wouldn't say you're comfortable, I would say you're used to me Hence separating doesn't seem real They tell me, "Chip, keep the girl that you had before the deal, yeah" You can call this my reff flow Could this decision might determine how the game goes Every time you get use me being here, I go On that note that's my queue to goNever thought I'd see the day when you wasn't by my side Listen I was down for you girl, put you first in my world And I thought you were down too rightIt's like you didn't want me to take off, take off, take off It's like you didn't want me to take off, take off But now I'm leavingIf it ain't a push forward it's a slow down It's kind of ironic that I slow down It's best that I go now rather than later Before you claim I'm too busy chasing that paper, it's true talk And to say it's over there, ain't no good words I don't think anybody breaks up on good terms So I'ma hit the club (Yep) Get my mingle on (Yep) Get my single on and throw it in a single song, yeahAnd you could call this my reff flow Could this decision might determine how to game goes Every time you get used to me being here, I go On that note that's my queue to goNever thought I'd see the day when you wasn't by my side Listen I was down for you girl, put you first in my world And I thought you were down too rightIt's like you didn't want me to take off, take off, take off It's like you didn't want me to take off, take off But now I'm leavingThey always ask me if I'm single in interviews I was too scared to say I'm into you, moving like a single dude Didn't ever lie but I skipped the truth Its past breaks now, fuck it, interludeOn my own feeling like I've got a point to prove Hungry but I don't wanna have my cake and eat it too And it's not that I ain't feelin' you

I'm leaving us, I ain't leaving youAnd you call this my reff flow Could this decision might determine how the game goes Every time you get used to me being here, I go On that note that's my queue to go
