

Good Man

Lee Brice

Just like you know your sun and stars are going to come back out
I'll give you everything I got a got like nobody else you found Open up your heart,
open up your eyes baby
listen to the sound of my voice when I tell you girl don't worry I ain't ever going to let you down Want to show you where I'm from take you for ride on a long dirt road
Let you...
I heard you're looking for a girl, man, ooh
To hold you with some girl hands
Somebody hit you to the bad land
So you're looking for a girl, man
Will you look at a good man now, ain't you girl? I heard you're looking for a girl, man, ooh
To hold you with some girl hands
Somebody hit you to the bad land
So you're looking for a girl, man
Will you look at a good man now, ain't you girl? I ain't no bad boy
I used to be, but I ain't no more
I ain't no bad boy
I ain't no bad boy
I ain't no bad boy
I used to be, but I ain't no more
I ain't no bad boy
So you're looking for a girl, man, ooh
To hold you with some girl hands
Trust me I hit you to the bad land
So you're looking for a girl, man
Will you look at a good man now, ain't you girl? Will you look at a good man now, ain't you girl?
