

William

Russian Red

Is this the best I can hope?
Is this the furthest I can go?
My reason tells me it is not my heart denies I ever loved Never forget the days of fascination and joy
remember the driving hours
playing these songs
made us float
And I'll never come back to the place
that saw my most bitter, bitter, bitter days Whoever said we cannot fly, the strangest dream will change your live My body tells me I'm bound to crawl
My sister used to wear my clothes, it's true
Never forget the days of fascination and joy
Remember the driving hours
playing these songs
made us float
And I'll never come back to the place
that saw my most bitter, bitter, bitter days
