Imagination

Erasure

What do you with yourself when you see the storm clouds rising? Feeling alone with yourself as the sun fades awayThe memories come to and fro The trouble is they never want to go They come never goImaginationIt's just your imagination rolling over the past It can change your mind completely It's just my imagination running wild and too fast But I know it won't defeat meLook into the eyes of Medusa and she'll turn your world to stone She'll tear at your eyes and seduce you and your soul will be gone The messages and hidden dreams Of former lives and lovers never seen A love never seenImaginationIt's just your imagination rolling over the past It can change your mind completely It's just my imagination running wild and too fast But I know it won't defeat meWhat do you with yourself when you're lost on some horizon? Taking a hold of yourself when you know the timing's wrong The memories come to and fro The trouble is they never want to goImaginationIt's just your imagination rolling over the past It can change your mind completely It's just my imagination running wild and too fast But I know it won't defeat me It's just your imagination rolling over the past It can change your mind completely It's just my imagination running wild and too fast But I know it won't defeat me And I know that it won't defeat me
