Lauv & Conan Gray

Lauv & Conan Gray - Fake
Yeah, you and your friends you live on the surface
Act like you're perfect
Everyone knows
You're just like everyone else except for you're better at taking photos
Ohh ohh oh oh
Yeah, why you gotta make everything a show
Man, you're so fucking fake (ahh ah)
You don't mean a single thing you say (ahh ah)
If we've got a problem, say it to my face (ahh ah)
And you're just like all the people that you hate
You're so fake
When the real you's back, I'll pick up my phone
Calling me up when you're getting drunk
You say you're in love but what do you mean
Cause when you wake up you blame it on drugs
And then we break up, you lie through your teeth
You just want to play little games for attention (you just want to play little games for attention)
Telling me your perfect lies and wasting all my time
Cause you're so fucking fake (ahh ah)
You don't mean a single thing you say (ahh ah)
If we've got a problem, say it to my face (ahh ah)
And you're just like all the people that you hate
You're so fake
When the real you's back, I'll pick up my phone
You just want to play little games for attention
(you just want to play little games for attention)
Pushing me away so I crave your affection (pushing me away so I crave your affection)
Calling me insane but you stay in my mentions (calling me insane but you stay in my mentions)
Telling me your perfect lies and wasting all my time
Cause you're so fucking fake (ahh ah)
You don't mean a single thing you say (ahh ah)
If we've got a problem, say it to my face (ahh ah)
And you're just like all the people that you hate
You're so fake (ooh)
When the real you's back, I'll pick up my phone
