

Porcelain

Emarosa

In the same way I can't imagine you're a mother,
I can't imagine you are wild.
Raising our beauty queen.
In the same way I can't imagine you're my wife,
I can't imagine you are wild.
The happiest part of me. But I think I know you, I know you
You can break
I think I know you, I know you
I'm watching away
You're porcelain
You're porcelain
I just want to hold you
You're porcelain
The greatest gift I'm feeling is in loving myself
Without fear of you walking away
Oh this is enough
But I know you, I know you
You can break
You're porcelain
I think I know you, I know you
I watch and wait
You're porcelain
You're porcelain
I just want to hold you
You're porcelain It's hard to face a life alone
With you, I never will
I believe in you, beautiful
I used to say it'd be ok
And it will
You better love me til the day you're gone
XO until the day I'm gone You're porcelain
You're porcelain You're porcelain
You're porcelain
I think I know you, I know you
You can break
You're porcelain
