

Wait for Me (With Bridgit Mendler)

Shane Harper

I've written a thousand words I know
Sorry, I love you and please don't go
I've waited so long, I'm sure it shows
I've written a thousand words I know I'm wasting away a little more everyday
Wait for me, wait for me
When I ask you to stay are you gonna go on your way?
Wait for me, wait for me, wait for me I saw the million lies you spoke
Over and over till we broke
I know that it means everything
To you but do you really think
This time apart will mend and help us grow?
I told a million lies, I know
I'm wasting away a little more everyday
Wait for me, wait for me
When I ask you to stay are you gonna go on your way?
Wait for me, wait for me, wait for me I'm wasting away, a little more everyday
Wait for me We're wasting away a little more everyday
Wait for me, wait for me
When I ask you to stay are you gonna go on your way?
Wait for me, wait for me, yeah
My love, don't tell me that it's over
My love, can't take it anymore
My love is staring at the future
My love is staring at the door
Don't wait for me
