Effigy

Creedence Clearwater Revival

```
Last night
       I saw a fire burning on
          The palace lawn.
            O'er the land,
The humble subjects watched in mixed
         Emotion.CHORUS:
           Who is burnin'?
           Who is burnin'?
               Effigy.
           Who is burnin'?
           Who is burnin'?
               Effigy.
             Last night
      I saw the fire spreadin' to
          The palace door.
           Silent majority
        Weren't keepin' quiet
    Anymore.CHORUSLast night
      I saw the fire spreadin' to
          The countryside.
           In the mornin',
       Few were left to watch
       The ashes die.CHORUS
                Why?
               Why?
               Why?
               Effigy.
