Shotgun

Sabaton

The dark compulse me everyday The countdown has begun I am your master, number one Realizing painI was [holy?]... in the underworld To live by Satan's will A creature of unholy pain Vengeance is my nameI walk alone the path of evil I'm Satan's number one Taste my fury, take my vengeance Now it's time to die I'm bringing out the shotgun! Ha ha ha!I am a breaker of this world Destruction is my name Bringing pain and infamy Into the face of man I walk alone the path of evil I'm Satan's number one Taste my fury, take my vengeance Now it's time to dieI'm bringing out the shotgun! Ha ha!The darkened haunts me everyday The countdown has begun I am your master, number one Realizing pain I walk alone the path of evil I'm Satan's number one Taste my fury, take my vengeance Now it's time to dieI'm bringing out the shotgun! Ha ha ha!I'm bringing out the shotgun! Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.
