

Forsaken

Skillet

I recall going madly in love with You
And I remember this, how could I forget
Regret is a needle in my neck
It's slowly filling me with poison
Spreading to my chest
Take my pain and numb me from this
Why do I have to beg
When all that's left is a memory
Forsaken
Why do I have to beg
When all that's left is a memory
Forsaken
I recall pledging my sole devotion to You
It reminds me how now I'm on my knees
My guilt consumes, lost the will in me
Wasting away before You
Hold me closer please
Take my pain and numb me from this
Why do I have to beg
When all that's left is a memory
Forsaken
Why do I have to beg
When all that's left is a memory
Forsaken
Yeah yeah yeah
Look at me
Forsake
You break me
Forsake
You break me
Your breaking me!
I recall going madly in love with You
And I remember this
Tell me
Why do I have to beg
When all that's left is a memory
Forsaken
Why do I have to beg
When all that's left is a memory
Forsaken
Yeah yeah yeah
Forsaken
Yeah yeah yeah
Tell me why
Why
Why
Why
