World Wide Suicide

Pearl Jam

I felt the earth on Monday, it moved beneath my feet
In the form of a morning paper laid out for me to see
Saw his face in a corner picture, I recognised the name
Could not stop staring at the face I'd never see againIt's a shame to awake in a world of pain
What does it mean when a war has taken over?

It's the same everyday in a hell manmade
What can be saved and who will be left to hold her? The whole world, world over

It's a world wide suicide

The whole world, world over

It's a world wide suicideMedals on a wooden mantle, next to a handsome face That the president took for granted, writing checks that others pay And in all the madness, thought becomes numb and naive

So much to talk about, nothing for to say

It's the same every day and the wave won't break

Tell you to pray, while the devil's on their shoulder

Laying claim to the take that our soldiers save

Does not equate and the truth's already out there The whole world, world over

It's a world wide suicide

The whole world, world over

It's a world wide suicideLooking in the eyes of the fallen You got to know there's another, another, another, another, another wayIt's a shame to awake in a world of pain

What does it mean when a war has taken over? It's the same everyday and the wave won't break

Tell you to pray while the devil's on their shoulderThe whole world, world over

It's a world wide suicide

The whole world, world over

It's a world wide suicide

The whole world, world over

It's a world wide suicide

The whole world, world over

It's a world wide suicide
