

Your Eyes (feat. Shekhinah)

Black Coffee

I would swim forever in your light
If I, I could stay, the apple of your eye, yeah
I would pray,
No surprise when it's you and I
I could spend a decade based on lies
If I, I could stay forever in you lies, yeah
I don't know why we've changed
And I, I'm so sure I'm your flame Your eyes change colour when you lie
I can see it, I'm not blind, yeah
Your eyes,
Your eyes,
Your eyes, yeah
Your eyes, they sparkle in the light
But in the dark I see the true colours of your heart
Your eyes,
Your eyes,
Your eyes, yeah
I can't deny just what I'm feelin'
All through the dark shit, you know I'm keepin' ya,
Keepin' ya
You're not leaving
Ain't make this up, but there's no reason
It's in my eyes, you keep rereading them,
Rereading them
See I don't know how I could leave boy
Cause life will surely cease to mean anything
And though it's no excuse,
Believe me,
You know me, I don't hurt too easy, yeah
Easy, yeah
Easy, yeah
Your eyes change colour when you lie
I can see it, I'm not blind, yeah
Your eyes,
Your eyes,
Your eyes, yeah
Your eyes, they sparkle in the light
But in the dark I see the true colours of your heart
Your eyes,
Your eyes,
Your eyes, yeah They say you love me, there's no one above me
They say I'm pretty, I don't need no makeup

Your eyes, your lies, they shot a million knives
Your eyes, yeah
They say you love me, there's no one above me
They say I'm pretty, I don't need no makeup
Your eyes, your eyes, they're telling me your lies
Your lies, yeah They say they lie, boy, they lie
You ain't gotta try, don't try
I know this is love
I know this is love
I know this is love
I know this is love
I know this is love, love
I know this is love, love
