

Mother (feat. Anggun)

Enigma

Don't be shy
I know you need a place to hide.
Mon is here and that's all right
I'm on your side, on your side. It's time you cross the river to glory land
Any dream helps survive
When you're there, you will see
That's the place you long to be.
Trust me, this ride is free. Open up the windows of your mind,
Don't you see it is time
To leave your fears behind?
Come, follow me
Escape through word
of desire and dreams
... desire and dreams
