Before the Dawn

[music: T. Saukkonen | Words: P. Willman] Deep inside me is a world of fear Deep inside me beyond compare I seek my saviour to prevent my failures Breathing hate with twisted grin please separate me from that skin Worth for nothing do all these tears this world is dying acts inhuman Making me change my ways of crying Reasoned, senseless, that's how I feel how defenseless and blind can one be purified shall be my name after your hand placing this picture to the frame I alone stand
