Everything Changes

Staind

If you just walked away What could I really say Would it matter anyway Would it change how you feelI am the mess you chose The closet you cannot close The devil in you I suppose 'Cause the wounds never healBut everything changes If I could, turn back the years If you could, learn to forgive me Then I could learn to feel Sometimes the things I say In moments of disarray Succumbing to the games we play To make sure that it's realBut everything changes If I could, turn back the years If you could, learn to forgive me Then I could learn to feelWhen it's just me and you Who knows what we could do If we can just make it through The toughest part of the day But everything changes If I could, turn back the years If you could, learn to forgive me Then I could, learn how to feel Then we could, stay here together And we could, conquer the world If we could, say that forever Is more than just a word If you just walked away What could I really say And would it matter anyway It wouldn't change how you feel
