

Last Sad Song (feat. Krizz Kaliko)

Tech N9ne

The Hole

I really need to get up outta this hole (man)
I'm really really sinking deep down in this hole
And I need to get out of this shit

I'm serious

I really wanna go into the light man
I, I know you all love me to be sad and shit, but
This gotta be my last sad song dude, I mean
I gotta get out of this shit before I lose myself in it()
Dont you pity me no no just pray for me
That this will be the last sad song I have to sing
And only time will tell if you'll stand here with me
And this will be the last sad song I have to sing

(verse 1)

Ehh

You all know my mothers sickness
You all know I'm breakin down
You all know in my circlce the devils steady makin rounds
You all know I'm missing my children because I'm shakin towns
And you all love my music and how sad I can make it sound
I'm in the darkness so low im under the carpet
Whom ever wants me to park it you motherfuckers is heartless
They want me stuck with hardships want an unhappy atrist
But I'm gonna break apart of this K.O.D shit regardless
Of who's mad a lot of my shit is too sad
Like the death of Micheal Jackson
Motherfucker who's bad
To jump right up out of myself
This shits a fight on my health
But darkness is selling
But I really wanna put yall some light on the shelf
Will you still be
Able to feel me
Even if I'm not talkin about trying to kill me
The king of darkness can no long conceal me
This could be my last sad song
Hopin it will be

()

Dont you pity me no no just pray for me
That this will be the last sad song I have to sing
And only time will tell if you'll stand here with me
And this will be the last sad song I have to sing(verse 2)

Yea

I want some carbiou lou
I wanna see areolas, chicks on my shoulders instead of boo hoo
Like I said I'm to through
With me spreadin blues fuel
All I wanna hear is about people say tech go ahead and do you
You all love my pain and I was glad to give it
But most the people who loved never really had to live it
Now they mad and live it
I dont want no sad visit
My music thinkin about you lose it
So they bash and diss it
Before they even hear what I have got coming this year
I'm gonna be that lit spear
Let's get some of this shit clear
I aint switchin to mainstream only
What is happening is you watchin the mainstream go me
So watch me bloom out of this black cocoon
Cause if I go back into gloom I'm just askin for doom
Man I'm just rappin about whom
To keep them from attacking my tomb
I dont wanna be Melancholy until they put my ass in a tomb()
Dont you pity me no no just pray for me
That this will be the last sad song I have to sing
And only time will tell if you'll stand here with me
And this will be the last sad song I have to sing(verse 3)

Listen

Only time can dictake if I'll get straight
But I'm reachin for the light as of this date
I love K.O.D but I think I made a mistake
By letting negative energy in me now I'm misplaced
I lost somethin' along the way
My momma taught me bad things are wrong to say
Still I conjured up a album of songs to play
For the dark and alot of my loved ones are gone today

Damn

I met a crossroad
I'm trying to go into the light like Carra Lam
There I stand still a lost soul
On this subject I wanna talk low
I'm ready to dangle this darkness at the top of the catacombs and toss those
But will you still be with me
Or just kill me quickly
Away with the darkness but I promise the flow will still be siccley
I am the king and I always have the throne
But I hope and pray for the bright of day hope this my last sad song()
Dont you pity me no no just pray for me
That this will be the last sad song I have to sing
And only time will tell if you'll stand here with me

And this will be the last sad song I have to sing(Mixed With Last)
It's time to do something else
Cause this shits fucking me up
Talking about mediline really it's fucking me up man
It's affected everyone around me man
I'm tryin to aaa
I gotta get out
I gotta be done with this shit
Fuck this shit lets go party nigga
