

Trust Nobody

DJ Snake

Yeah

Yeah

Yeah

Yeah I can't trust nobody, I can't trust nobody

Yeah I can't trust nobody, I can't trust nobody

I'm from the southside like Kebo Gotti

And the whole hitta squad, yeah, shouts out, my homies

'Cause you know I'm out here making money, out here, out here making money

I can't trust nobody, I can't trust nobody

I'm from the southside like Kebo Gotti

And the whole hitta squad, yeah, shouts out, my homies

'Cause you know I'm out here making money, out here, out here making money

Out here, out here making money

Out here, out here making money

Out here, out here making money

Out here, out here making money

I can't trust nobody, I can't trust nobody

I can't trust nobody, when I'm out here making money-money Yeah

Yeah

Yeah

Yeah I can't trust nobody, I can't trust nobody

Yeah

I can't trust nobody, I can't trust nobody

I'm from the southside like Kebo Gotti

And the whole hitta squad, yeah, shouts out, my homies

'Cause you know I'm out here making money, out here, out here making money I can't trust nobody, I can't trust nobody

I'm from the southside like Kebo Gotti

And the whole hitta squad, yeah, shouts out, my homies

'Cause you know I'm out here making money, out here, out here making money

Out here, out here making money

Out here, out here making money

Out here, out here making money

I can't trust nobody, I can't trust nobody

I can't trust nobody, when I'm out here making money-money
