

Right Back In the Water

Jesse McCartney

I could tell by the look in her eyes
Maybe I'm just another one of her lies
'Cause I know we've been through this so many times
Still I'm here though I'm burning up inside [Chorus:]
And I try to walk away but I keep telling myself
She's the one for me
'Cause her love is so contagious
It keeps pulling me in
We were meant to be
And I can't leave her so
We're right back in the water
Oh we're right back in the water
I could tell by the look in her eyes
All my friends keep telling me now's the time
But I know
Just the notion saying goodbye
It breaks my heart, it tears me up inside [Chorus]
And I try to walk away but I keep telling myself
She's the one for me
'Cause her love is so contagious
It keeps pulling me in
We were meant to be
And I can't leave her so We're right back singing
Ooooh, ooooh c'mon, ooooh, ooooh c'mon
I wanna walk by but there is something that won't let me singing
Ooooh, ooooh c'mon, ooooh, ooooh c'mon
She's the one that's always there
I could tell by the look in her eyes
Maybe I'm just another one of her lies
[Chorus]
And I try to walk away but I keep telling myself
She's the one for me
'Cause her love is so contagious
It keeps pulling me in
We were meant to be
And I can't leave her so
We're right back in the water
oooh we're right back in the water yeah
