

Unfamiliar (feat. PJ)

Common

What you doing to my heart is unfamiliar
I try to keep it out my head, it's not that simple to me
And what you doing to my heart is unfamiliar
But I could get used to it
I could get used to it, I could get..
Why don't I take the time and then [?] my baby doll?
Why don't I take the to get you anything you want?
'Cause what you doing to my heart is unfamiliar
But I could get used to it
I could get used to it, I could get..
Love never gave a limit, wait a minute, stay up in it
Everyday we give it, play to win it, way we live it
My heart you cannot visit, stay extended
The lot we love, we lay up in it, days is vivid
Same incentive, the way we hid it is like Will and Jada did it
A house is not a home unless we staying in it, stay committed
I used to get around, now I'm staying centered
Angels ascended, grounded, stay cemented
The mentality, we all casualties, I can't do this casually
Actually you challenge me to balance me
Pay dues and salaries, been through truce and fallacies
The unfamiliar [?] made me lose calories
In a house rewind playing Amy's "Valerie"
Then I realized the past ain't my reality
On love's balcony, you standing out for me
This is alchemy, unashamed and undoubtedly
Now I see
What you doing to my heart is unfamiliar
I try to keep it out my head, it's not that simple to me
And what you doing to my heart is unfamiliar
But I could get used to it
I could get used to it, I could get..
Why don't I take the time and then [?] my baby doll?
Why don't I take the to get you anything you want?
'Cause what you doing to my heart is unfamiliar
But I could get used to it
I could get used to it, I could get..
This love's a lobby, clicks the way that "T. D." Jakes described it
Vibrant thing the way that Tip from Tribe would sing
So many things that you provide the king
You too fly, never should you hide your wings
The awakening, let's keep breaking things

Break them rules, break them laws, breaking through
Breaking walls, sacred thoughts
Are the oceans that we breaking 'cross
The truth is a naked cloth
No need to take it off, the weight is off
Love we making due is unbreakable, relatable
Stayed in you, relayed into the faith in you
You awaken to what fate can do
Fate is inescapable, super friends, we capable
To take it to a greater view they say is unattainable
I paint for you a picture I'm forever in it with ya
Love it when we hang, in my life, you're a fixture
A mixture of love [?] scriptures
The right elixir, my spirit I pour to enrich ya
I'm with ya What you doing to my heart is unfamiliar
I try to keep it out my head, it's not that simple to me
And what you doing to my heart is unfamiliar
But I could get used to it
I could get used to it, I could get..
Why don't I take the time and then [?] my baby doll?
Why don't I take the to get you anything you want?
'Cause what you doing to my heart is unfamiliar
But I could get used to it
I could get used to it, I could get..
