

Screaming Eagles

Sabatón

Crack of the lightning splitting the ground
Thunder is sounding, artillery pounding
Wrath of the Nazis cast on Bastogne
Facing their forces alone

ALONE!

ALONE!

Sent from the skies jumped into the unknown
The march to Berlin has begun
Spearhead the charge surrounded by foes
Eagles are leading the way France is still under enemy rule
Push, axis retreat

Thrown towards Arnhem a bitter defeat
They're stretched out just one bridge to far
Turn of the tide, it's breaking away

Losing momentum, retreat Go to Bastogne, the crossroads must hold
Stand, alone in the cold Crack of the lightning splitting the ground

Thunder is sounding, artillery pounding
Wrath of the Nazis cast on Bastogne
Facing their forces alone

ALONE!

ALONE! Dig your own foxholes or dig your own grave

The storm is about to begin
The seige has begun, there's nowhere to run
Panzerkampfwagen emerge
Tanks and mortars are shaking the ground
Prey of man and machine

Crack of the lightning splitting the ground
Thunder is sounding, artillery pounding
Wrath of the Nazis cast on Bastogne
Facing their forces alone

ALONE!

ALONE! Chill of the winter bite to the bone and christmas is drawing near Soldiers are freezing, the death toll increasing
They're dying in their holes

There's no surrender there's no retreat, the Wehrmacht is drawing near There's no reinforcements - they're fighting all alone!

(Solo)

Sent from the skies ended up in Bastogne
As Easy, as hard as they get
Nazi command request and demand
Offered surrender - declined

"Nuts!" The General's word echoes clear!

"Nuts!" The Nazis shall hear!
Crack of the lightning splitting the ground
Thunder is sounding, artillery pounding
Wrath of the Nazis cast on Bastogne
Facing their forces alone
ALONE!
