I was born into the goodness, graciousness of all mighty god faced with temptations, lies, emphasize war, weapons of destruction, mayhem slaughter of the people, satan worldly ways, godly ways, holidays, sorrow no one is guaranteed tomorrow, yesterday was borrowed picture perfect sunsets, ocean front toxic waste dump, smog, clogged arteries lotteries, rechargeable batteries flattery, vanity, stars jet propelled cars, men behind bars murder, justice destruction cats that quit, setups evidence, identity, plus agility politics, revenge natural ability, idolatry, and chemistry fear, friendship, enemies and energy heat, humidities. crimes against humanities carry these, harmonies, melodies and galaxies trinitities, remedies and memories are fallacies I think I know too much! you don't know shit!
I think I know too much! you don't know shit!
I was born into the purest perfection of love of all mighty god faced with the sword of the truth like a lightning rod city, states, countries and all abroad spacecraft all aboard convoy are destroyed books, tv, radio and telephone records, phonographs, speakers and microphones dance, cultural expression unity, neighborhood community youth and the elderly parties, battles, skills and graffiti art determination, reputation, strong and the weak at heart gods, gangsters, griots and gigolos kings, queens, bitches and silly hoes money, cars, clothes and diamond rings houses, horses, stock, the finer things food, family, future, a purpose knowledge, wisdom, understanding this circus time, travel, audio and visual creative adaptive, lonely individual one nation under a groove, indivisible mind, soul, spirit and the physical
I think I know too much! you don't know shit!
I think I know too much! you don't know shit!
