

Rockefeller Street

Nightcore

Daylight is fading away
Night silhouettes in the sky
LED lights are flashing on towersIt's Manhattan's magical time
Ballerinas dancing the "Swan Lake"
On a river made of diamonds and pearls
Everything's a little bit weird nowBecause tonight it is showtime
In the middle of the street life (street life)
All we celebrate are good times (good times)
Because tonight it is showtime (showtime)
Come and walk with me1273, down to Rockefeller Street
Life is marchin' on do you feel that
1273, down to Rockefeller Street
Everything is more than surreal (than surreal)
(Don't lie, don't lie, don't lie
Let's go, let's go)Old-school Hollywood stars
Party Cinderellas are here
They move like computer game heroesBecause they know it is showtime
In the middle of the street life (street life)
All they celebrate are good times (good times)
Because tonight it is showtime (showtime)So let's keep movin' on1273, down to Rockefeller
Street
Life is marchin' on do you feel that
1273, down to Rockefeller Street
Everything is more than surreal (than surreal)So let's keep movin' on
Keep movin', keep movin', keep movin', keep movin'
If you want to know what Rockefeller groove is
Keep movin', keep movin', keep movin', keep movin'
Time is right to celebrate good times(Keep movin', keep movin', keep movin', keep movin'
If you want to know what Rockefeller groove is
Keep movin', keep movin', keep movin', keep movin'
Time is right to celebrate good times)1273, down to Rockefeller Street
Life is marchin' on do you feel that
1273, down to Rockefeller Street
Everything is more than surreal (than surreal)1273 down to Rockefeller street
Life is marchin' on do you feel that1273 down to Rockefeller street
Everything is more than surreal
